WILL ASK FOR AN INJUNCTION

Restraining Goebel From Acting as Governor.

HE IS THOUGHT TO BE DYING.

Lieutenant Governor Beckham Will Act as Governor—Federal Authorities Refuse to Interfere.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Washington, Feb. 3—The refusal of the administration to respond to Taylor's appeal for recognition is said by a member of the cabinet to mean that Taylor will probably be unseated. The president and his cabinet regret this. They are convinced that Taylor was elected rightfully and the action of the Goebel legislature in declaring Goebel elected was improper, but realize that thus far the Kentucky legislature has acted within its right under the law, and that interference by federal authority would be wrong. Senator Lindsay has assured them that the legislature will proceed under the Goebel law and there is nothing for the Taylor government to do but submit.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 3—Having been refused help from the federal government, Taylor has decided to appeal to the federal courts. He will today ask Judge Evans for a writ of injunction restraining Goebel from acting as governor. This course was decided upon here early this morning at a conference of republican attorneys. Bradley will probably lead the argument before Judge Evans for the desired writ. It is expected the petition will contain these points: That Taylor undoubtedly had a majority of votes at the late election; that the political opponents officially called upon to pass upon said election so decided; that any attempt of the democratic legislature to unseat him would be usurpation of power and unconstitutional; that the declaration of Goebel made by democratic legislators was void, as Taylor had adjourned the legislature, and any legislation in the interim would be illegal; that he had power to adjourn the legislature as he deemed an insurrection existed, and he alone, as governor, was judge of said insurrection.

The attending physicians this morning report that Goebel is resting quietly. His general condition showed a distinct improvement.

Lieut.-Gov. Beckham will today be acting governor in place of Goebel. Physician's certigcates were made out last night declaring Goebel would be unable for some time to exercise his power. Beckham will immediately exercise all power. His first appointment will be Gen. Castleman as adjutant general. Democratic leaders state positively that Castleman will undoubtedly accept.

Frankfort, Feb 3—Judge Cantrell has granted an order of injunction restraining Taylor.

General Collier is interfering with the legislature and preventing the holding of a session at London next week.

LATER.

Frankfort, Feb. 3—Goebel is worse this afternoon. There is extreme danger. The chances are that he is dying.

MIXING MATTERS IN CUBA.

Officials Fail to Comprehend the Meaning of Wood's Recent Order.

Havana, Feb. 2—A misunderstanding regarding the scope of Governor General Wood's order in regard to the functions of the military and civil authorities led Secretary of Public Work Villalon to issue an order ander annulling a contract between the Pan American Express Company and the railroads on the ground that the charges were excessive. The company appealed and the matter was communicated to General Wood, who directed the order to be suspended pending his return. If each secretary is empowered to issue orders of this character without consulting the governor general endless confusion will result.

President Gelats, of the Havana chamber of commerce, in a letter to the prefecto, complains that the provisions of the Foraker resolution in regard to granting franchises has not been carried out and points out several instances of its violation, He says that while he would gladly see it modified so as to permit the creation of mortgage and loan associations to permit the development of agriculture, he is opposed to its total abrogation. commercial element of the island favor is modification to permit special concessions

"S Gallert, Esq, chairman of the democratic executive committee of Rutherford county, arrived in the city last night and brings the information that the Rutherford democrats will hold their convention on the 12th inst, and that it will be the first democratic county convention to be held in the state. The candidacy of M. H. Justice, Esq, for the democratic nomination for governor will be formally announced, and it is expected to make the occasion a notable one. One or more speakers of state reputation will be present and address the people. Mr. Gallert says all the democrats of Rutherford are in favor of the amendment and along with them some republicans."—Charlotte Observer.

"RONEY'S BOYS."

Will Appear at Academy on Thursday Night.

The above aggregation will hold the boards at the academy of music next Thursday night. Of their recent appearance in Richmond, the News of that city, says:

"Roney's Boys" captured the hearts of Richmond at the Y. M. C. A. Hall last night. Such continued and spontaneous applause is rarely heard in the concert hall, probably because the company far exceeded expectations instead of falling below it, as is too often the case.

Blatchford Kavanaugh, the mellow-voiced baritone, received a royal welcome and was listened to with delight, on account of his charming manner as well as his sympathetic and beautiful voice.

But it was "Roney's Boys" to whom the hearts of the people probably went out the strongest. It was a many-sided appeal. Their exquisite singing and playing, probably excelled in artistic finish and intelligent interpretation any performances by little people ever heard in these parts.

Their elegant Louis XV court costumes in velvet and satin brocade, lace and gold and silver braid, their trim military uniforms, their artless, unconsciousness and high-bred manners coupled with winning smiles all completed a stage picture that did the heart good. It was small wonder that people nearly smothered them with attentions at an impromptu reception at the close of the concert, and ladies stole kiss after kiss from their rosy cheeks.

The boys are little Harry Cockrell, a ten-year-old cherub, with a voice that soars like a skylark; Jamie Crippen, eleven years, fair and dainty as a piece of Dresden china with a voice of lovely quality and wonderful enunciation, Francis Murphy, thirteen years, a deep contralto, with a quality that thrills, and Arthur Goff, a veritable Lev upon the cornet at eleven years. It is impossible to convey in type an adequate idea of the accomplishments of the northern boys. Prof. Roney, Blatchford Kavanaugh and Jamie Crippen live in Chicago, the other three hail from Wisconsin, Iowa and Nebraska. By request of the Y. M. C. A. Mr Roney gave a few words in regard to the boys, their daily routine, school studies, which are carried on enroute, and the safeguards to keep them sweet and unspoiled in character

Mr. Roney, the trainer of Kavanaugh and the boys and manager of the company will be remembered in the south in connection with the memorable trip through the southern states of the First Regiment, Illinois National Guard of Chicago, in 1895. This famous military organization is the one which fired the salute over the graves of the confederate dead in Oakwood Cemetery, Chicago, at the dedication of the monument erected to their memory. Prof. Roney as a guest of the regiment, accompanied the party and directed the regimental glee club and the concerts of the tour.

HELPING THE ORPHANS

Sam Brown Has a Great Treat in Store for Them.

Mr Sam Browne, who gladdened the hearts of the orphan children at Oxford last Christmas by making each one a valuable present, has a still better treat for them for the coming Easter. Through his efforts a suit of overalls will be presented to each boy. As soon as Mr. Browne's desires were known Mr. Caesar Cone, the big-hearted manufacturer, donated the goods necessary to make the overalls and the Hunter Manufacturing Company generously offered to make them up.

The effort does not end here. Mr. Browne is now receiving contributions for the purpose of presenting each girl with a dress and a pair of shoes. He received a nice letter from Mr. Hicks, the superintendent, today, thanking him for his work in behalf of the orphans and in reply to a request, sent the sizes for 117 pairs of shoes, which will be forwarded in due time.

Mr. Browne will be glad to accept contributions in any amount for this laudable undertaking, and is now sitting at the "receipt of custom" so to speak. He is giving of his own means and of his time generously, and verily his reward will be great in the bright beyond, where there are no orphans and no sad hearts, but where all will be the "children of a King."

Will Stick by the People.

There are many business concerns in this country that attempt to make capitol out of the fact that they do not belong to and are run in opposition to the trusts, but we have noticed that these concerns always regulate their prices according to the price demanded by the trusts. If the trusts make an advance they advance with them, and accordingly, if the trusts make an advance to put more money into their coffers, as a matter of course these other concerns are doing the same thing. What the people want is opposition to trusts that will work independently and refuse to be controlled by them.—Durham Herald.

Smithkins—"How did you get rid of that life insurance agent?" Brownstone—"I told him I was going down to Kentucky to study practical politics."

GORDON AT OAK RIDGE.

Distinguished Conferate to Speak at Commencement.

Special to the Telegram.

Oak Ridge, Feb 3—Gereral John B Gordon, the distinguished ex-Confederate veteran, of Georgia, has accepted an invitation to address the graduating classes at Oak Ridge Institute on commencement day, May 22.

The work of the school is progressing finely. The senior class numbers 22, and is unusually strong. There are 49 men in the bookkeeping department and 37 in the stenographic department. All departments of the school are unusually full.

Captain Bennett had his men on the baseball field last week, but the season has not yet opened; the work is still confined to the gymnasium The ball team will be nearly as strong as last year, when it won eight out of ten games played Malone, the fine young pitcher who learned here and played South Carolina College, Columbia. He will be heard from there. Oak Ridge will have to rely on Brake, who also learned here, and Wicker. The latter pitched last year, but did not prove effective in any game except the one with Roanoke College. It is hoped that he will do better this year. Brake on the other hand did better last year than was expected, winning all his games. Holt, who played first base so brilliantly last year, is now at the University, where he ought to measure up with the best first basemen. Benbow and Hester will try for the position; Carter will play right field or second base, and Ross will play center or catch. He is a new man from south Guilford, who gives promise, so is Howard, who will try for short stop or second. Bennett will play third, and he has no superior outside of the leagues. D A. Smith is expected to be in left field, though he says he does not expect to play this year. This leaves Williams, of Shelby, who gave great promise last year, as a substitute for short stop and out field. Brake and Ross will do the catching.

THE FIRST CLASH.

Frankfort, Feb. 2—The first clash between the executive and judicial powers of the state occurred today. A still greater clash is imminent tomorrow and beyond the possibilities of tomorrow lies a sea with skies lowering and so stormy an aspect that no politician of either party can predict where it will carry the Kentucky Ship of State. There can be no longer any concealment of the fact that the affairs are bordering on conflict in arms. Legal prosess may provide a remedy too dilatory to please a few of the more impatient, and it is is in the power of these to create a world of woe.

The clash of today came when an officer of the circuit court of Franklin county was arrested by the military while attempting to serve notice of a legal proceeding on Governor Taylor. The clash of tomorrow may come when the officers of that court attempt to force the rulings of its presiding judge. Behind this judge, the democrats will have tomorrow, for the first time, an active legislative head in the person of acting Governor Beckham, and from the democratic standpoint a regularly appointed adjutant general, whose orders the troops now encamped around the capitol building, are bound to obey. If they decline to obey, the new adjutant general, the democrats claim, has power to organize military forces of his own and proceed against all people who defy the authority of his office and that of the governor of the state whom he represents.

On the other hand the republicans are fixed in their attitude that there if there is an insurrection in the state, that Beckham and the actions of his adjutant general and his orders are those of people acting in opposition to law and those who show resistance to the proclamations of Governor Taylor are in rebellion against the commonwealth. They will resist an attempt of any kind to remove them from their position around the capitol, meeting force with force, and that means civil war.

The first clash of today came when Alonzo Walker, a stenographer employed by the democratic attorneys, was placed under arrest in the capitol grounds, charged with conduct tending to incite munity and riot. He had pinned to the door of the private office of Governor Taylor a notice of injunction proceedings.

Tomorrow the injunction will be granted. Judge Cantrill has the reputation of firm enforcement of his rulings and will use all the power in his hands to secure the operation of his injunction. It is equally certain that the republicans will pay no attention to Judge Cantrill, or his writs. The democrats claim that the arrest of Walker by the republicans while carrying out the orders of the court, has placed them in contempt of court and they will make all of the point possible.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, O., prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had kept her awake every night. She tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1 00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

BOERS LOST ELEVEN HUNDRED

During the Fighting of Last Week.

FREE STATERS RE DISSATISFIED

Many Colonists Have Gone Back to Their Farms—Beseiging Boer Forces Leaving Ladysmith.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Feb. 3—A dispatch from Ladysmith declares that the Boers during last week's fighting lost eleven hundred killed and six hundred wounded. Among the killed were five field cornets. While it has been believed here that the Boer losses before and at Spion kop would prove to be heavy, there was no thought of such a terrible total. It is pointed out that the death roll of eleven hundred would explain why the Boers made no attempt to follow Warren when he withdrew from Spion kop or harass Buller when he retired south of the Tugela.

Sterkssprult, Jan 29 (delayed)—Commandant Oliver, of the Orange Free State, in a speech to the Boers at Ladygrey, said his men were almost surrounded at Stormberg and ueless recruits are forthcoming he will be compelled to abandon his position Many colonists who fought at Stormberg have gone back to their farms, and refuse to return to active service though threatened with death. Among them are some conspicuous burghers who originally invited the Free Staters to invade Cape Colony.

Cape Town, Feb 2—It appears that the free state burghers are tired of war. It is rumored that some influential leaders have entered into secret negotiations with the military authorities eo ascertain what terms Great Britain would offer should they leave the Transvaal allies.

London, Feb. 3—Ladysmith despatch heliographed from Spearman's camp February 1, state that the Boer commandos are leaving. The besieging forces have been considerably reduced. The withdrawal of these troops points to a possible attack by British Roberts reports that forty Highlanders who were previously reported as killed at Magersfyntein are prisoners at Pretoria.

ROBERTS WANTS MORE MEN.

Militia Bollot Act to be Enforced the 14th.

London, Feb. 2—Dispatches from several points in South Africa merely tell of desultory shell firing and the movements of patrols, though Cape Town mentions a rumor that General French has captured eight hundred Boers, where and when not being announced.

Sensational rumors are current that the militia ballot act will be put in force February 14th, and that General Lord Roberts, the commander-in chief of the British forces in South Africa has cabled for ninety thousand additional men, which, it is added, the government has promised to give him, sending fifty thousand militia and volunteers and forty thousand militia reserves.

It is also said that the volunteers will be mobilized forthwith. It is even asserted today that the cabinet has especially dealt with these matters.

The militia ballot act makes every unmarried man between eighteen and thirty years of age liable to serve for five years.

The Gazette this evening says that it is the queen's intention to confer the Victoria Cross on Captains Congreve and Reed, Lieutenant Roberts and Corporal Nurse for their attempts to save the guns at the battle of Colenso.

MAFEKING NOT YET RELIVED.

Lorenzo Marquez, Thursday, Feb. 1—A dispatch from Gaberones, dated January 23rd, describing a reconnoissance of some of Colonel Plumer's forces around the Boer laager southward seems to dispose of the story that Mafeking has been relieved. On that date the Rhodesians captured two Transvaal flags and drove off the Boer outposts before returning to Gaberones.

VETO ON CONTRABAND GOODS

Germany Will Prevent Shipments of Such to South Africa.

London, Feb. 2—In the house of commons today William Broderick, under secretary of state for foreign affairs, stated that the German government had undertaken to see to it that nothing contraband of war should be shipped by Germans to South Africa. The British government agreed that German mail steamers shall not be interfered with except under the gravest suspicion.

Replying to aquestion, Mr. Balfour, government leader, said that arbitration between Great Britain and the Transvaal was not applicable in the present circumstances.

RYAN AGAINST WILLIAMS.

Argument Heard Before Judge Waddill in Richmond.

Richmond, Feb. 2—Argument in the case of Thomas F. Ryan, of New York, against John Skelton Williams and others, on amended petition of the complainant, filed at Norfolk, for an injunction against the defendents, to restrain them from consolidating certain railroads into the Seaboard Air Line system, was begun this morning before Judge Waddill, in the United States circuit court here, and continued until 8:30 tonight.

The complainants contented that the act of the Virginia assembly, enlarging the powers of the Seaboard & Roanoke, and permitting consolidation is invalid, because there has been no such concurrent legislation on the part of the state of North Carolina, it having been provided in the charter of the Seaboard & Roanoke, of 1853, that it should not be amended without such concurrent legislation. The defendants claimed that the amendment of the charter of the Raleigh & Gaston by the North Carolina assembly, allowing the Seaboard and Roanoke to consolidate, was such concurrent legislation. The complainants hold that the charter of the Seaboard & Roanoke could not be amended without the consent of all the stockholders, against which the defendants held that the charter in itself provides for amendment and further, that power of amendment is given under a general law which provides that all charters may be amended or repealed. The judge reserved his decision.

PAID DEPARTMENT.

Some time ago the Telegram gave some facts and figures about the difference in paid and a voluntary fire department, showing that it would be to the best interest of the business people and all citizens listing property for taxation and insuring property against loss by fire, to establish a paid department for the city of Greensboro.

That the business men of the city have been thinking about this is evidenced by the fact that a number of them have voluntarily offered to contribute a sum of money to the city to assist in establishing the said paid fire department.

The following is the agreement signed them and the amount each one proposes to donate:

We agree to pay on demand to the city of Greensboro the amount opposite our names if they will establish a first-class paid fire department and thereby make the city a first-class fire insurance rate:

The Greensboro Evening Telegram, heretofore published by the Evening Telegram Publishing Company, has become the property of the Greensboro Publishing Company, a corporation composed of a large number of the business men of that thriving city.

Mr. R. F. Beasley becomes editor of the Telegram, under the new management. As editor of the Monroe Journal Mr. Beasly established himself as one of the best editorial writers connected with the press of the state. We are gratified that Mr. R. M. Phillips, who has so far made the Telegram one of the brightest and best dailies in the state is to remain on the editorial staff of the paper. Under Messrs. Beasley and Phillips the Telegram can but grow to greater power and usefulness.

It has The Post's best wishes always.

Of the reorganization of the Telegram company and the conduct of the paper, the Concord Standard says:

Mr. R. F. Beasly, the brilliant editor of the Monroe Journal, is to be editor-in-chief. Mr. R. M. Phillips, who has been conducting the Telegram quite successfully, has been tendered a position on the editorial staff.

The Selegram is now to expand its field, and we suppose its volume. Its valuable part in North Carolina journalism in the past prompts good wishes for its greater success even under the new auspices.

FIGURES ON FAILURES.

Number Smaller but Liabilities Larger Than Last Year.

New York, Feb. 3—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade today says:

Failures in January were fewer than last year, but in liabilities were greater by 34 per cent. Manufacturing failures were also slightly larger than in January, 1898, but smaller than any other year. The most noteworthy feature was that small failures were larger in manufacturing and trading alike.

This year starts with much of the year's business already done, and all comparison proves misleading if the fact is not taken into account. This year works are already crowded for most lines, and prices had advanced so far that the recoil had already commenced in some branches.

Speculation of all sorts has been at a very low tide, but is now increasing Railroad stocks have advanced 84 cents per share on an average during the week, and industrials $3.90 per share.

Wheat rose 1 cent, but soon reacted. Atlantic exports were 1,666 592 bushels for the week, against 4,942,436 bushels last year. Pacific exports have been 4,209,390 bushels for five weeks, against 3,670,852 bushels last year.

Speculation in cotton has raised the price to 8¼ cents without improvement in the demand.

Wool is rather weaker in some grades, but stronger in others, so that the average quotations are steady. Boot and shoe manufacturers have passed all records in deliveries, nearly 20 per cent beyond those of January last year. The iron and steel industry is so far tied up by contracts reaching through most of the year that the effect of production exceeding consumption is felt only in some branches. Little lower prices have been made for foundry, though Bessemer does not yield.

Failures for the week have been 212 in the United States and thirty-four in Canada.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

Bradstreet's says:

In distributive trade reports for the most of January vary with the branches trade concerned. Retail distribution is undoubtedly unfavorably affected by mild weather, and stocks of retailers in some sections of the country are reported large. The cotton goods situation remains apparently a strong one. Backward deliveries are still complained of by converters Jobbing business in spring goods is good.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

For the Babies.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucous, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Life without liberty is joyless; but life without joy may be great. The greatness of life is sacrifice.

It also cured my children of whooping cough." Quickly relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Children all like it. Mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

The Best Medicine For Rheumatism

"I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Balm," writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Hermanie, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies without number, but Pain Balm is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. For sale by C. E Holton, druggist.

SALT RHEUM CURED BY Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

JUST SEEN IN TIME.

Slight Skin Eruptions are a Warning of Something More Serious to Come. The Only Safe Way is to Heed the Warning. Johnston's Sarsaparilla is the Most Powerful Blood Purifier Known.

Nature, in her efforts to correct mistakes, which mistakes have come from careless living, or it may be from ancestors, shoots out pimples, blotches and other imperfections on the skin, as a warning that more serious troubles (perhaps tumors, cancers, erysipelas or pulmonary diseases) are certain to follow if you neglect to heed the warning and correct the mistakes.

Many a lingering, painful disease and many an early death has been avoided simply because these notes of warning have been heeded and the blood kept pure by a right use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA.

Miss Abbie J. Rande, of Marshall, Mich., writes:

"I was cured of a bad humor after suffering with it for five years. The doctors and my friends said it was salt rheum. It came out on my head, neck and ears, and then on my whole body. I was perfectly raw with it. What I suffered during those five years, is no use telling. Nobody would believe me if I did. I tried every medicine that was advertised to cure it. I spent money enough to buy a house. I heard JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA highly praised. I tried a bottle of it. I began to improve right away, and when I had finished the third bottle I was completely cured. I have never had a touch of it since. I never got any thing to do me the least good till I tried JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. I would heartily advise all who are suffering from humors or skin disease of any kind to try it at once. I had also a good deal of stomach trouble, and was run down and miserable, but JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA made me all right."

The blood is your life and if you keep it pure and strong you can positively resist disease or face contagion fearlessly. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA never fails. It is for sale by all druggists, in full quart bottles at only one dollar each.

SINGULAR DREAMING

TWO PECULIAR CASES OF BRAIN ACTIVITY IN SLEEP.

A Lawyer Who Solved a Knotty Problem He Could Not Master While Awake—An Exciting and Almost Tragic Railway Journey.

An Edinburgh lawyer, a confirmed somnambulist, went through a peculiar experience some little time ago. One evening, after dinner, he told his wife that he had a most difficult law case which would occupy him half the night to study out. For hours thereafter he grappled with its intricacies, but finally desisted, saying it would be impossible to make his brief until morning, since the case presented some difficulties that he had been unable to master.

He fell asleep from exhaustion almost as soon as he went to bed, but in a few minutes rose, and, seating himself at his desk, wrote furiously for an hour or more. Then, carefully folding and indorsing the sheets he had written upon, he put them away in a pigeonhole of his desk, after which, without speaking, he returned to his bed and slept soundly till late in the morning.

At breakfast he expressed some uncertainty as to his "finding a solution." His wife told him to look through his desk, which he did, discovering the paper he had written in the pigeonhole where he had hidden it. As he read it joy mingled with amazement showed plainly in his face, for the paper was a clearly reasoned, correctly phrased brief on the intricate case, with all the obscure points smoothed out! He had not the slightest recollection of having written the document.

Another extraordinary case is that of a young man who, an hour or so before starting on a railway journey, paid a visit to a steamer in which his parents were financially interested. In the course of the inspection he entered the little chamber in the bow of the vessel where the anchor chain is coiled and was impressed by the chamber's smallness and the cramped quarters it would afford a man sent down there to superintend the paying out of the chain. In due course the traveler went to the railway station and engaged a snug seat in the corner of a first class corridor and sleeping carriage. He had the compartment to himself. The train had not been long on its journey before the young man was sound asleep. But he imagined that he was awake and, moreover, that he was imprisoned in the little anchor chain compartment of the steamer. The vessel was under way, he thought, and moving more rapidly than he had ever known a steamer to move before.

His first idea was to go on deck at once, but he could not get out of the cell-like chamber. He could not stand erect even, the compartment was so little, as he found out at the cost of an imaginary bumped head when he attempted to rise. Then, to his surprise, he found that the room had a window, evidently a dead light, but square and unusually large. This he tried to raise, but, failing, determined to break it, thinking that he could seize the anchor chain and by its aid reach the deck.

There was only one way to smash the glass, and that was by striking it with his clinched fist. He knew that this would result in a cut hand probably, but he risked it all the same, for he felt certain now that the vessel was in a storm and likely to go down any moment, in which case he would be drowned like a rat in a trap.

Having smashed the glass, he found that the window was double, and he distinctly remembers breaking the outside pane, after which, with profusely bleeding hands, he carefully picked out the bits of glass remaining in the sashes, so that he could climb out.

After removing the last remaining fragment of glass from the sash he carefully thrust his head and arms out and began to feel for the chain. It was nowhere to be found. Then he pulled himself half way out of the window and reached upward.

To his great joy, he found he could reach over the edge of the deck; but, to his dismay, it was curved and smooth, offering no projection whatever by which he might pull himself up. That being the case, and not wishing to fall into the water and be drowned, he painfully drew back into the little chamber. However, he must certainly escape or be drowned, and after getting his breath he would make another attempt to reach the deck.

As he lay panting and frightened he accidentally reached in the direction away from the deadlight. To his surprise, he touched a swaying window blind, and the next moment he found himself lying on the floor of the corridor of the onrushing train, with a window down, through which he had evidently been trying to reach the deck of the imaginary steamer. The wonder was he did not lose his grip and fall on the line. It was his fear of being drowned that prevented him from being killed on the railway. The young fellow had a long and serious illness after his experience, and, strange to say, when he recovered his somnambulistic habit left him.—Washington Star.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, Ohio, after suffering 18 months from rectal fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest pile cure on earth, and the best salve in the world. 25 cents a box. One Minute Cough Cure, cures. That is what it was made for.

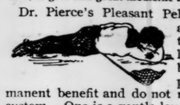
The pursuit of pleasure is often as dangerous to life as the pursuit of "the bubble reputation even at the cannon's mouth." Late hours, the breathing of a vitiated atmosphere, rich foods, and irregular rest, must result in a depleted vitality. There is a feeling of languor, the appetite fails, sleep does not refresh, life loses its interest, and nervousness or hysteria may make life miserable.

The preservation of the healthful tone of the body depends chiefly on keeping the blood pure, and the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition in a condition of health. When any of the above mentioned symptoms appear the timely use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will restore the body to a healthy equipoise. It purifies the blood, nourishes the nerves, and restores the deranged stomach and its allied organs to a condition of sound health.

There is no alcohol, whisky or other stimulant contained in "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I was troubled with very frequent headaches often accompanied by severe vomiting," writes Miss Mary Bell Summerton, of San Diego, Duval Co., Texas. "Bowels were irregular and my stomach and liver seemed continually out of order. Often I could eat almost nothing for twenty-four hours at a time. I was entirely unfit for work, and my whole system run down. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and did so with such satisfactory results that before finishing the third bottle I felt perfectly able to undertake the duties attending public school life. I most heartily advise those suffering with indigestion, and its attendant evils, to give this great medicine a fair trial."



Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse and regulate the stomach, liver and bowels. They produce permanent benefit and do not re-act on the system. One is a gentle laxative.

The reason women so seldom mount the ladder of fame is because there are so many men standing around beneath.

Lewis Dennis, Salem, Ind., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure did me more good than anything I ever took." It digests what you eat and cannot help but cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. Howard Gardner.

Newberne, Feb. 2—News has just reached here that one week ago the schooner Mary C. Ward was capsized in Pamlico sound. The schooner was loaded with oysters bound for Swan Quarter. The crew consisted of nine men. Captain R E Cox and others were taken off after ten hous' exposure, nearly exhausted, but alive. The following were drowned: Henry Credle, white; Ed Murphy, Squire Howard, Tom Collins and Frank Mums, colored. The wreck occurred four miles off Bluff Point.

An Editor's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold, which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.—B. A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases Only 50c and $1.00. WINE OF CARDUI

Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.

I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.

MRS. V. M. BOISVERT.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it. They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.

A SONG OF LIFE.

What shall I make of thy life, love? What shall I bring to you,
Flower of fair color, song of tremulous sweep?
Bird that o'er waters of tears on a faithful wing to you
Finds her way with a leaf for you to keep?
Shell in whose chamber remembered waves shall ring to you
Chimes of sleep?

Bird that homes to you? Song that will sigh and sing to you?
Flower that knoweth not passion or faith or doubt?
Shell that whispers a musical memory out?
Nay, I will make of my life two hands to cling to you—
Passionate hands, my heart, last shall clasp you and cling to you,
Living and dying, daylight and dreaming throughout.

STOOD FOR STONEWALL.

When Jackson Gave an Order, It Was Obeyed to the Letter.

The following dialogue, current at the time, between one of Stonewall Jackson's soldiers and the provost guard illustrates Jackson's tact at eluding his enemy and also the obedience rendered and the confidence reposed in him by his troops.

The orders read on dress parade the evening before Jackson left the valley to take part in the seven days' fight around Richmond were that in case the army moved before further orders the answer from every soldier to any and all questions except those connected with the army shall be, "I don't know." On the march the provost guard found a soldier in a cherry tree helping himself, when the following took place:

"Who are you?" demanded the guard.
"I don't know," replied the soldier.
"Where is your command?"
"I don't know."
"To what command do you belong?"
"I don't know."
"What are you doing in that cherry tree?"
"I don't know."
"Are those good cherries you are eating?"
"I don't know."
"Is there anything you do know?"
"Yes."
"What is it?"
"Well, the last order I had from old Stonewall was that I was not to know anything until further orders, and, gentlemen, I will see you all hanged before I will know anything until old Stonewall takes that order off."—Waco Times-Herald.

The Bell Mare.

Ill tempered old horses delight to attack very young foals and will kill them if permitted. Mules have the same cheerful habit, unless they are under the influence of "the bell mare." She is the queen of the herd—a kindly creature who has grazed and fed with them, wearing a tinkling bell about her neck. If she snorts defiance of anything, all her followers rush to the attack. If she sniffs tolerance, they pass it by. In all things they obey her abjectly.

Back in the old days, when horses and mules throughout the southwest went to market in droves, the rough riding highwayman of that epoch always tried to capture "the bell" and make off with it, knowing that nothing could keep the drove from following. Similarly, drovers tried always to save "the bell." She was led, never ridden, so that in event of attack she might be fresh for a game run. A light lad led her—the owner or chief drover brought up the rear. The lad had strict orders at the first sign of trouble to go his very best, caring for nothing but "the bell."

Boston's Four Best Sayings.

A good deal is to be forgiven Colonel Higginson in view of his witty and most admirable thrust at Henry James. There are four mots upon which Boston particularly prides herself. Motley made one of them, "Give me the luxuries of life, and I will dispense with its necessities." Tom Appleton made another, "Good Americans, when they die, go to Paris." A lady, name withheld, but quoted by Emerson, made the third, "The consciousness of being perfectly well dressed gives a feeling of inward tranquillity which religion is powerless to bestow." These three have long been famous, but Higginson matched the best of them when he remarked, "Henry James has been called a cosmopolitan, but he isn't, since a cosmopolitan is a man who is at home, even in his own country."—New York Mail and Express.

A Man's Calls.

A man must think when making a call to leave his umbrella, overcoat and overshoes in the hall, though he may carry his hat and stick to the drawing room. He must arise whenever a lady enters the room, and, whether caller or host, he must never look at his watch. Except in his own house, he should never find a seat for another. He must not offer his own chair to any one and should remove his glove before shaking hands.—Leah Lanceford in Woman's Home Companion

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was spared that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. I had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth and he has been restored to perfect health.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect advice from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific,

Wright Assassinated.

Middleboro, Ky., Feb. 2—The report that Wm. S. Wright, ex-member of the Kentucky legislature for Knott and Letcher counties, was assassinated at Boone fork, on the Kentucky river, last night, is confirmed by advices tonight from Hagan. During the campaign last fall, Wright made an enthusiastic canvass for John Young Brown, for governor.

He was a prominent lawyer and democratic politician and had made many enemies among the mountaineers in defending cases for the coal companies. There were five shots and two took effect. He was shot with a Winchester of the same calibre as that used by the would-be assassin of Goebel.

A rare is in store for our music lovers tonight by the International Grand Operatic Company, and it is predicted that the people will turn out enmasse to give them a welcome, and to enjoy the fine performance which will live long in the memories of all who hear them. The program will be so arranged as to please all, being divided into three. The costumes to be used are very fine, and the artists have word-wide reputations. Surely none of our citizens should miss the grand performance promised.

"The most wonderful performance I have ever seen" is a common remark elicited from theatre goers after a visit to the entertainment which the great Herrmann gives in legerdemain. In sleight of hand and the many tricks of an art that must be very great indeed, so mystifying are its products, the great Herrmann done a hundred years ago, yes even fifty years ago, one-half of the mysterious tricks he nightly performs now, he would have been burned as a sorcerer instead of applauded as a genius. He will appear at Academy of Music Feb. 8, presenting what is without doubt the most unique and the finest magical entertainment in the world. The Luciers musical artists of the first grade and masters of many instruments, give a charming divertisement to a big programme of magic and matchless legerdemain.

Factory Employes Will Make a Fight for It.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, Feb. 3

At half past three o'clock yesterday afternoon the white employes of the Snow Lumber Company walked out of factory. Yesterday morning a petition was gotten up and signed by the white operatives requesting that the negroes in the shops with them be removed. The company refused to do this and at the sound of the whistle, blown by one of their number, the factory shut down so far as they were concerned.

Dr. J. W. Long of Salisbury, passed through last night enroute home.

No deaths have occurred here from smallpox and there is no cause to believe that any one will succumb to the d sease.

Causes of Loss of Hair

Dr. Sabouraud, the eminent French Dermatologist, says that 98 per cent of hair losses are the results of microbes and the neglect of dandruff. The antiseptic action of preparations kills microbes and removes dandruff. Their constant use for a period will, by acting directly on the hair bulbs, furnish nourishment, vitality and growing power to the impoverished roots and hair shafts, resulting in complete restoration.
